Ta'amod Training

Ta’amod training offers Jewish organizations the opportunity to invest in the critical work of creating safe, respectful, equitable workplaces rooted in Jewish values which intrinsically reduce the risk of harassment.

Learn more & request a training: www.taamod.org/training

WHY TA'AMOD?

- We offer the ONLY national workplace respect training framed in Jewish content.
- We focus on real culture change, providing interactive tools and skills for both harassment prevention and response.
- Training topics include: the spectrum of abusive behavior, bystander intervention, giving and receiving feedback, coaching, organizational policy review, and legal requirements.
- Curriculum is legally compliant with state harassment regulations.
- We provide training nationally, facilitated by experienced local trainers.
- Training is intended for diverse audiences and constituencies.